

AGENDA

Telesupervision and Clinical Supervision: Supervising in A Trauma-informed Mode Carol Falender, Ph.D.

- 9:00-9:10 Welcome and Introduction
- 9:10- 10:30 Multicultural clinical supervision
Telesupervision: Competencies still apply
Telesupervision Supervision –Guidelines in a Competency-based frame
- 10:30-10:40 Morning Break
- 10:40-12:10 Assessing supervisee competencies
Diversity and Multiculturalism: Progressive vs. Regressive
Developing the supervisory alliance and the living supervision contract
Identifying and repairing strains and ruptures
Distinguishing supervision from consultation, psychotherapy, and mentoring, giving accurate feedback.
- 12:10-12:50 Lunch
- 12:50-2:20 Personal factors, reactivity, and countertransference
Trauma-informed supervision
Values/beliefs conflicts in supervision
Group supervision
- 2:20-2:30 Afternoon Break
- 2:30-4:00 Supervisees with problems of professional competence
Legal repercussions of using the word “impairment” to connote performance problems
Self-care—self-compassion and the supervisor
Ethical and Legal Aspects
Boundaries
Liability
Transforming the supervisory relationship